REPORT ON NORMS FOLLOWED FOR FIXING SCHOOL FEES

Academic Session 2025–26

1. Introduction

Spring Dales School is committed to providing quality education in an affordable, transparent, and student-friendly manner. The school firmly believes that education should remain accessible to all sections of society and that the fee structure must be fair, reasonable, and non-exploitative.

The norms followed for fixing school fees are based on the principles of transparency, accountability, affordability, and compliance with the guidelines issued by the competent educational authorities. The school ensures that the fee structure supports the smooth functioning and development of the institution without placing unnecessary financial burden on parents.

2. Principles Followed for Fee Fixation

The school follows the following important principles while determining the fee structure:

- * Affordability for parents and guardians
- * Transparency in fee collection
- * No commercialization of education
- * Compliance with educational norms and regulations
- * Balanced financial planning for institutional development
- * Consideration of local socio-economic conditions
- * Maintenance of quality education standards

The management ensures that the fee structure remains moderate and reasonable while maintaining academic excellence and necessary infrastructural facilities.

3. No Admission Fee Policy

Spring Dales School follows a student-friendly admission policy and does not charge any Admission Fee from students at the time of admission.

The school believes that access to education should not be restricted due to financial barriers. Therefore:

- * No one-time admission charges are collected.
- * Parents are not burdened with unnecessary entry-level expenses.
- * Equal educational opportunities are promoted for all learners.

This policy reflects the school's commitment toward inclusive and affordable education.

4. No Annual Fee Policy

The school also follows a policy of not charging any Annual Fee from students.

Unlike many institutions that levy annual development or maintenance charges, Spring Dales School has consciously adopted a simplified fee structure to reduce financial pressure on parents. Therefore:

- * No yearly maintenance charges are collected.
- * No annual activity charges are imposed separately.
- * No compulsory annual development fee is taken from students.

The school management ensures that institutional expenses are managed responsibly and efficiently without transferring unnecessary financial burden to parents.

5. Monthly Fee Structure

Students are required to pay only a basic Monthly Tuition Fee for their education and academic services.

The monthly fee has been fixed after careful consideration of:

- * Rent of lease building
- * Staff salaries and welfare
- * Academic resources

- * Infrastructure maintenance
- * Electricity and utility expenses
- * Laboratory and library facilities
- * Digital learning support
- * Sports and co-curricular activities

The school ensures that the monthly fee remains:

- * Reasonable
- * Affordable
- * Non-exploitative
- * Appropriate to the facilities provided

The fee structure is designed in a manner that supports the smooth functioning of the institution while remaining economically manageable for families.

6. Transparency in Fee Collection

The school maintains complete transparency regarding fee collection and financial procedures.

The following practices are followed:

- * Fee details are communicated clearly to parents.
- * Receipts are issued for every payment.
- * No hidden charges are collected.
- * Fee policies are explained during admission.
- * Parents are informed in advance regarding any approved changes.

The school ensures ethical financial practices and maintains accountability in all fee-related matters.

7. Consideration for Parents and Students

Spring Dales School recognizes the financial responsibilities of parents and strives to maintain a compassionate and supportive approach in fee-related matters.

The school:

- * Avoids unnecessary financial burden on families.

- * Maintains moderate fee levels.
- * Promotes accessible education for all sections of society.
- * Ensures that no student is deprived of education due to unreasonable fee practices.

The institution believes in building trust and cooperation between the school and parents through fair and balanced financial policies.

8. Compliance with Educational Norms

The fee structure of the school is framed in accordance with:

- * Applicable State Government guidelines
- * CBSE affiliation norms
- * Educational department regulations
- * Principles of transparency and fairness in education

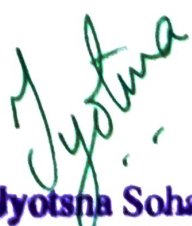

The school management periodically reviews the fee structure to ensure compliance with all applicable rules and to maintain affordability.

9. Conclusion

Spring Dales School remains dedicated to providing quality education through a fair, transparent, and affordable fee structure. The school follows a simplified and parent-friendly fee policy wherein:

- * No Admission Fee is charged.
- * No Annual Fee is charged.
- * Students are required to pay only a basic Monthly Fee.

The institution continues to uphold the values of accessibility, educational equity, and responsible financial management while ensuring high standards of teaching and holistic development for all students.
